

SAIC to Deliver IT Services on Department of Veterans Affairs $60.7B Contract

January 10, 2024

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Science Applications International Corp. (NYSE: SAIC) has been selected to provide a range of Information Technology (IT) services on the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) contracting vehicle called Transformation Twenty-One Total Technology Next Generation Two (T4NG2).

"SAIC is ready to deliver best-in-class innovation and modernization in support of our nation's heroes, the veteran community," said Vishal Tulsian, senior vice president, Health, State and Local, and Federal Financials at SAIC. "We will continue to support the Department of Veterans Affairs in their pursuit of innovative IT services including highly secure and adaptable IT infrastructure, systems engineering, secure application development and customer support and training."

Under this contract, companies selected will compete for task orders to provide a full range of IT services across 11 technical functional areas in support of the VA and other federal agencies. SAIC will serve as a prime contractor on the first position. On the second, the company will be a contractor in the joint venture with Higher Echelon, which is in a mentor-protégé program with SAIC.

SAIC has supported the VAs previous contracting vehicle and successfully executed 16 task orders valued at approximately $935 million, to date.
